

Press Release
October 29th, 2018

Daniela Thrasher
Director of Bands
Clay Center Community School Bands

CCCHS Tigerband earns “1” rating at Mission Valley Marching Band Festival.

This past Wednesday, the CCCHS Tigerband traveled to Mission Valley, right outside of Eskridge KS, to perform at the annual Mission Valley Marching Band Festival. Though we had some people missing due to family emergencies and sickness, the band put all their effort on the field and performed the “Carry On Tigers 2018” show one last time. Their hard work, dedication, and passion was rewarded with a “1” rating from the two judges, Eric Stambaugh and Neil Purvis. After their performance, Mr. Stambaugh talked to the band and gave them instant feedback. Great points to work on next year!

We want to thank everybody in the Clay Center community, as well as our administrators and school community, who support us in our endeavour to become the best Tigerband we can be!

We are inviting you to our Middle School Holiday Concert on November 15th, in the Martyn-Snodgrass Auditorium at 7 pm. All bands, grades 5 to 8, will perform, including a musical surprise at the end. We will also enjoy the 7th and 8th grade choirs.

Up next for the CCCHS Tigerband, and the 7th and 8th grade CCCMS Bands, is the Winter Concert on January 17th, 2019. We will welcome Todd Strait as our clinician. You will be in for a wonderful treat. Tickets for this concert will be $4 in advance and $5 at the door. This concert is made possible in part by the Clay Center Arts Council.

