

Clay Center Community School Bands

Press Release

Jan. 12, 2018

Clay Center Community Bands welcome Dr. Jay Gilbert as guest clinician for our Winter Concert on January 23rd, 2018, Martyn-Snodgrass Auditorium, CCCHS

We cordially invite you to our annual Winter Concert to hear our 7th, 8th grade Bengals and High School Tiger Band play. The program offers a diverse range of concert band pieces. This concert is sponsored by the Clay County Arts Council. We thank you for your support in getting world-class clinicians to work with our students!!

Dr. Jay Gilbert is the Director of Instrumental Music and Chair of the Music Department at Doane University in Crete, Nebraska. He has been a guest conductor throughout the United States and Canada. He has also served as a presenter for numerous state conventions and the Midwest International Band/Orchestra Clinic in Chicago. He also is an active composer and arranger with several published compositions for Band. Every summer he conducts the middle level band at the Kansas State University Band Camp and also offers a graduate seminar on wind band literature for middle level and secondary teachers at Vandercook College of Music in Chicago.

We are very excited to welcome Dr. Gilbert to our band program at CCCS. He will work with all our bands and conduct the Tiger Band at the concert.

Tuesday, January 23rd, 2018, 7 pm, Martyn-Snodgrass-Auditorium, Clay Center Community High School.